FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 789—S. L., dated 10*th October* 1939.

To

All Treasury Officers,

It is observed that receipts given by holders for drawing interest on the debentures of the Mysore Central Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank are not being affixed with receipt stamps, presumably on the assumption that these interest receipts are also exempt from stamp duty just like those of Government Securities. This impression is wrong. The omission to insist on stamp being affixed to interest receipts is a mistake.

Treasury Officers are requested to insist upon stamps being affixed to Interest Receipts of the debentures of the Mysore Central Co-operative Land Mortgage Bank exceeding Rs. 20 and not to pay the amount in cases in which this condition is not fulfilled.

M. VIRARAJA URS,
Comptroller.
